REGO PARK RESIDENT JOINS GREAT NECK PHYSICAL THERAPY PRACTICE

Allen Eshmoili (PT, MPT, CSCS), a Rego Park resident and physical therapist, has joined the staff of Reddy-Care Physical Therapy in Great Neck. The appointment was announced recently by Vinod Somareddy, president and owner of Reddy-Care, a leading physical therapy practice specializing in manual therapy to treat musculoskeletal conditions.

“ We are pleased to have Allen join Reddy-Care as part of our continuing growth,” said Dr. Somareddy. “He is a very capable physical therapist. We look forward to his important contributions to our practice. “

Prior to joining Reddy-Care, Allen has worked as a physical therapist, and was Center Coordinator of Clinical Education at Advanced S.P.O.R.T.S. in New York. He graduated in 2005 from SUNY Upstate Medical University in Syracuse cum laude with a Masters Degree in Physical Therapy. Allen is currently working toward certification in March as an orthopedic specialist. He is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA), the Orthopedic Section of the APTA , and is on the Advisory Panel on Public Relations for the APTA.
