

FOREST HILLS RESIDENT JOINS PHYSICAL THERAPY PRACTICE

Yakov Simkhayev (PT, DPT), a Forest Hills resident and physical therapist, has joined the staff of Reddy-Care Physical Therapy in Great Neck. The appointment was announced recently by Vinod Somareddy (DPT), president and owner of Reddy-Care, a leading physical therapy practice specializing in manual therapy to treat musculoskeletal conditions.

“We are pleased to have Yakev join Reddy-Care as part of our continued growth,”said Dr. Somareddy. “ He is a skilled therapist with considerable experience in orthopedics. “

Prior to joining Reddy-Care, Yakov worked at Franklin Hospital of the LIJ Health System, specializing in acute care. In addition, he was associated with Long Island Orthopedics and two orthopedics centers practicing sports medicine. Yakov graduated from Hunter College, and earned a Doctorate in Physical Therapy from Touro College in Bayshore.
